Request For Washington Paid Family And Medical Leave (Form WA PFML-1) Instructions

- To request Washington Paid Family And Medical Leave (WA PFML), the employee requesting WA PFML must complete Part A of the Request For Washington Paid Family And Medical Leave (Form WA PFML-1). All items on the form are required unless noted as optional. The employee then provides the form to the employer to complete Part B.
- The employer completes Part B of the Request For Washington Paid Family And Medical Leave (Form WA PFML-1) and returns it to the employee within three days.
- Additional forms are required depending on the type of leave being requested. The employee requesting leave is responsible for the completion of these forms.
- The employee submits the completed Request For Washington Paid Family And Medical Leave (Form WA PFML-1) with the required additional form to The Standard. The employee should retain a copy of each submitted form for their records.

PART A - EMPLOYEE INFORMATION (to be completed by the employee)

The employee requesting WA PFML must complete all required information.

Washington Paid Family And Medical Leave (WA PFML) Request (to be completed by the employee)

Question 10: Family member means a child, grandchild, grandparent, parent, sibling, or spouse of an employee.
Child includes a biological, adopted, or foster child, a stepchild, child's spouse, or a child to whom the employee stands in loco parentis, is a legal guardian, or is a de facto parent, regardless of age or dependency status.
Grandchild means a child of the employee's child.
Grandparent means a parent of the employee's parent.
Parent means the biological, adoptive, de facto, or foster parent, stepparent, or legal guardian of an employee or the employee's spouse, or an individual who stood in loco parentis to an employee when the employee was a child.
Spouse means a husband or wife or state registered domestic partner.

Question 11: If dates are "Continuous", the employee must provide the start and end dates of the requested WA PFML. These dates should be the actual dates that the WA PFML will begin and end. If uncertain, estimate the start and end dates and indicate "Dates are estimated". If dates are "Periodic", enter the dates WA PFML will be taken. Please be as specific as possible. If the dates are unknown or estimated, indicate "Dates are estimated".

If dates are estimated, The Standard may require you to submit a request for payment after the WA PFML day is taken. Payment for approved claims will be due as soon as possible but in no event more than 14 days from the date of the completed request.

Question 12: Date employer was notified. If the employee is submitting the WA PFML request to their employer with less than 30 days' advance notice from the start date of the WA PFML, the employee must explain why 30 days' notice could not be given. If the explanation will not fit in the space provided on the form, enter "See Attached" and add an attachment with the explanation. Be sure to include the employee's full name and their date of birth at the top of the attachment.

Employment Information (to be completed by the employee)

Question 14: Enter the date of hire to the best of the employee's recollection. If it has been more than a year since the date of hire, entering the year in which employment started is sufficient.

Question 18: List all other income you will be receiving while on WA PFML. Include the type/name of income and how much. Example PTO from employer for $500.00 a week.

If you are pre-submitting form: Indicate if the employee is pre-submitting their WA PFML request. Pre-submitting is defined as submitting the application in advance of an upcoming qualifying event, with certain required information missing due to the information being unknown at the time of the submitting. If pre-submitting is permitted by The Standard, the missing information must be supplied as soon as it is known. Benefits cannot be determined until all of the required information is provided.

The Standard will provide the employee a notice within five days which 1) states the claim is pending; 2) identifies what information is missing; 3) instructs how to submit the missing information. Once all information is supplied, The Standard has 14 days to pay or deny the claim.

If The Standard does not permit pre-submitting, The Standard must return the Request for Washington Paid Family And Medical Leave within five days to the employee with an explanation that the claim should be re-submitted when all information is available.

Employee signs and dates, before giving this form to their employer to complete Part B.

PART B - EMPLOYER INFORMATION (to be completed by the employer)

The employer of the employee requesting WA PFML must complete all information in Part B.

Question 2: If a Social Security Number is used for the Federal Employer Identification Number (FEIN), enter the Social Security Number.

Question 8. You can call the state or check through the employer portal for this information.

"Wage" or "wages" means: For the purpose of payment of benefits, the remuneration paid by one or more employers to an employee for employment during the employee's qualifying period.

"Employee's average weekly wage" means the quotient derived by dividing the employee's total wages during the two quarters of the employee's qualifying period in which total wages were highest by twenty-six. If the result is not a multiple of one dollar, we will round the result to the next lower multiple of one dollar.

Question 9. You can call the state or check through the employer portal for this information. The state will have hours from all employers the employee has worked. Typical workweek hours means: (a) For an hourly employee, the average number of hours worked per week by an employee since the beginning of the qualifying period; and (b) Forty hours for a salaried employee, regardless of the number of hours the salaried employee typically works.

For salaried employees, the number of hours worked in a week are assumed to be forty, regardless of how many hours are actually worked. Typical workweek hours are determined by multiplying the number of weeks in the qualifying period the employee held the salaried position by forty, adding any other hours that were not salaried, if any, and then dividing that amount by fifty-two. For all other employees, typical workweek hours are determined by dividing the sum of all hours reported in the qualifying period by fifty-two.

Qualifying period means the first four of the last five completed calendar quarters or, if eligibility is not established, the last four completed calendar quarters immediately preceding the application for leave.

Affirmation employee is eligible for WA PFML: To be eligible for any family and medical leave, an employee must be in employment in the state of WA for eight hundred twenty hours during the qualifying period, by an employer with a voluntary plan or an employer utilizing the state family and medical leave plan. An employee qualifies for benefits under an employer's voluntary plan after the employee works at least three hundred forty hours for the current employer, unless this requirement is waived by the employer.

Employer signs and dates, and then returns to the employee requesting WA PFML within three business days.

Be sure to complete the appropriate additional WA PFML form(s) based on the type of WA PFML leave being requested.

Paid Family And Medical Leave
Release Of Personal Health Information
For Family Member
(Form PFML-3)

- If an employee is requesting Paid Family And Medical Leave (PFML) to care for a family member with a serious health condition, the family member or an authorized representative must complete a Release Of Personal Health Information For Family Member (Form PFML-3) and submit it to their Health Care Provider, along with a copy of the Certification For Care Of Family Member (Form PFML-4).
- The Release Of Personal Health Information For Family Member (Form PFML-3) enables the Health Care Provider to complete Certification For Care Of Family Member (Form PFML-4) and release it to the employee seeking PFML benefits.
- Before completing and signing, the family member must read the Release Of Personal Health Information For Family Member (Form PFML-3) in its entirety.
- The employee requesting PFML submits both the Request For Paid Family And Medical Leave (Form PFML-1) and the Certification For Care Of Family Member (Form PFML-4) to their employer's PFML insurance carrier, for PFML benefit determination.

NOTE: This form will be retained by the Health Care Provider. The employee should make a copy for their records before giving it to the Health Care Provider.

Family member or authorized representative signs and dates.

RELEASE OF PERSONAL HEALTH INFORMATION BY THE HEALTH CARE PROVIDER FOR A FAMILY MEMBER WITH A SERIOUS HEALTH CONDITION (to be completed by the family member or authorized representative and submitted to family member's Health Care Provider with Form PFML-4)

Employee enters their name, and family member's name and date of birth at the top of each page.

The PFML insurance carrier name requested at the top of the form is the same as the PFML insurance carrier identified in Request For Paid Family And Medical Leave (Form PFML-1) Part B line 13.

Family member or authorized representative must complete all applicable requested information.

If a family member is unable to fill out this form, an authorized representative must attach a copy of legal documentation, such as a health care proxy or power of attorney, permitting the representative to sign on behalf of the family member. The Health Care Provider will require this documentation of authorization unless the authorized representative is a parent signing on behalf of a minor child.

Paid Family and Medical Leave (PFML) Voluntary Federal Income Tax Withholding Request

We want to offer you the option to address any tax obligation by providing the ability to voluntarily request tax obligations withdrawn from your PFML benefit. You can have Federal tax withheld from your Paid Family and Medical Leave Benefits. Taxes will be withheld after deductions are taken.

- Withholding Federal Tax is voluntary. 10% of your benefits would be withheld for Federal taxes.
  - If you do not have Federal income tax withheld, you may need to make estimated quarterly tax payments.
- The Federal Tax withheld during the year will be reported on a Tax Form that is mailed after the end of the year.

You can stop the tax withholding at any time during your benefit claim.

- If you do not want to have income tax withheld from your weekly benefits, you do not have to return this form.
- Any monies you have withheld cannot be returned to you except by the Federal government as part of your income tax refund.

To start or stop withholding 10% Federal Income Tax, complete the form below and return it to The Standard at PO Box 3877, Portland OR 97208.
